

Consider Sierra College Patrons...

Who are the Sierra College Patrons?

Members of the Sierra College Patrons are community-minded individuals devoted to promoting and supporting the programs and activities of Sierra College, with an emphasis on the Arts and Humanities.

What do the Patrons do?

Since 1985, the Patrons have given more than $250,000 to the college and students.

This support includes:

- ◆ sponsoring cultural events, speakers, and conference attendance,
- ◆ donating equipment for the Arts and Humanities programs,
- ◆ coordinating the Dietrich Theater seating renovation,
- ◆ commissioning multiple works of art on campus,
- ◆ providing student scholarships,
- ◆ donating seed money for the Ridley Gallery, and
- ◆ three annual monetary awards for the Student Art Show

Patrons also partner with other college entities for fund- and friend-raising initiatives, including the annual crab feed with the Aquatics Department.

When do the Patrons meet?

The group meets for lunch and a program at 12:30 p.m. on the first Monday of the month, September through June.
